

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Michael Janess, 50, has 13 children. Some failed to attend school. Warned to have them there or go to jail.

Oswald C. Katz, 1313 Harding st., fined $100 for practicing medicine without license.

Julius Rhodes, owner of penny arcade, 917 Belmont av., fined $100 and costs. Exhibited objectionable slides.

Coroner recommends smooth paving at railroad crossings. Claims it would reduce danger of autos being struck by trains if machines were not forced to slow down at grades.

Edward Wilson, 5135 S. St. Louis av., slashed throat at County Hospital. Dead.

Mrs. Lulu Tanner Shurtz wants hubby's books audited to determine alimony in divorce suit.

Basudeo Bheppacharya, Hindu student University of Chicago, held on serious charge. Alleged to have mistreated Ruth Morris, 5, 6131 Drexel av.

Fire horse going. Place to be taken by motor apparatus.

Attorney E. M. Gates, 74, 6332 Wentworth av., arraigned for alleged embezzlement. Said to have withheld $225 belonging to Robert Mueller.

Charles H. Hanson, 72, Danish consul for last 12 years, died yesterday.

Paul White, 7253 Harvard av., bitten by dog. Animal shot by police.

"Col." Cora Strayer's regiment of 200 cavalrywomen will start drills tonight.

Citizens of Byron bought private 'phone lines before utilities commission. Villagers don't want to lose news obtained over party wires.

Detectives Tierney and McKune pursued alleged burglar. Two dogs routed detectives. William Weinstein, 2035 Evergreen av., caught by citizen. Held as burglar suspect.

Policeman Henry Newroth commandeered auto to stop Parmalee bus runaway. Frightened horses captured after mile chase.

William M. Keith acquitted of murder of Walter Paul. Temporary insanity verdict of jury.

Rooms of 70 co-eds of Corinthian dormitory, Northwestern University, searched by detectives in effort to locate author of numerous thefts.

Mrs. Havelock Ellis, famous English playwright, against civil marriage and large families. Claims women should be self-supporting instead of parasites on husband.

Business men plan $110,000 fund for children welfare work. Seven additional stations to be opened by Infant Welfare Ass'n.

Mr. and Mrs. Bertram Wilson, 749 Lincoln parkway, have filed notice of adoption of Muriel Mason, 8.

Petition for recanvass of returns at election, April 21, for village trustees, Thornton, filed in Circuit Court.

Charles F. Hille, attorney, sent to jail for contempt, wants writ of supersedeas. Will be permitted to give bonds if granted.

Chickens prohibited from walking on streets by proposed city ordinance. Spend too much time in neighbor's gardens.

Bishop Charles P. Anderson scores eugenics. Proposes cultured aristocracy as savior of society.

Steel flagpole blown from top of University Club Bldg. Windows in several autos shattered. No one hurt.

Ten policemen facing charges before civil service commission. Charged with bribery, holdup, drunkenness and assault. One up for losing "billy" and star in saloon fight.

Saloon license of Louis Robinson, 2659 W. North av., revoked. Man contributed to delinquency of two 17-year-old girls.

Mrs. Lillie Farley held to grand jury for operating confidence game. Passed worthless checks at several stores.

Incendiary fire threatened to destroy six-story building, 329 W. Mon-